ANDREW BARRETT-MILES SAYS THANK YOU

Thank you to all in Leylands Ward for your wonderful support and votes that have allowed me to represent you at County Hall. Together with the other two new Conservative County Councillors, Burgess Hill will have strong representation; making sure that the town's voice is heard.

I am particularly grateful to Pru and Cherry and their team. They explained to me the important issues in Leylands Ward, their successes and hopes for the future. They will continue to keep me in touch with your needs and wishes.

We have already met with officers from the Highways department to highlight the state of our roads and the importance that you place on the issue. West Sussex has over 800,000 residents and, as well as the roads is responsible for education, Fire and Rescue services, libraries, waste disposal (400,000 tonnes a year), Gypsy and other traveller issues among many other things. Economic development, encouraging business and employment opportunities are a high priority and I intend to be particularly active when it comes to any proposed development in the area.

I look forward to this challenging new role. Rest assured that my main concern is to focus on the priorities for Burgess Hill.

THE END OF THE GASOMETER

After six years of pressure by Pru and Cherry, permission has finally been granted to demolish this eyesore, which is great news. Expect to see action in the early autumn.

LEYLANDS ROAD CONGESTION

Works have started to sort out the congestion at the junction of Leylands Road and Leylands Park - a partial success so far, with more to come.

JOB DONE!!

That horrible sunken drain that has been keeping everyone's teeth on edge in Leylands Road has been fixed after pressure from Pru and Cherry

ELSEWHERE IN BURGESS HILL...

- The McCarthy & Stone development in Queen Elizabeth Avenue is nearing completion. The District Council has ensured that 30% of the flats will be rented by Affinity Sutton to local people as affordable housing for the elderly.
- The Junction Inn site has finally been cleared after pressure from Councillors so that it is no longer an eyesore while the site waits for pending redevelopment.
- Thanks to Burgess Hill Town Council, this year's Summer Festival was a tremendous success.

WHAT NEXT?

Tackling those potholes!

All three of Burgess Hill's new Conservative County Councillors have promised to make it a priority to push for the early repair of potholes.

Road safety

Following feedback at the last Neighbourhood Panel meeting, Pru and Cherry are pushing to get speed calming measures installed in Leylands Road.

BMX track in Bedelands

The BMX track is going to be revamped. Local residents and the youth club have already been consulted. See the plans at www.facebook.com/BurgessHillBikePark. Two parents have volunteered to help organise - more always needed!

WHAT DO YOU WANT US TO TRY AND TACKLE NEXT?

Come to the Neighbourhood Panel meeting on Thursday 15th August at 7pm at Sidney West Community Centre.

Meet your County, District & Town Councillors at our new surgeries, to be held at the Burgess Hill Town Council offices on 20th July, 21st September and 23rd November from 10-11.30am.
