

THE EU REFERENDUM - LET BRITAIN DECIDE

An in/out referendum on Europe in 2017. Only if you vote Conservative

Britain's relationship with Europe isn't working and needs to change.

Most people are agreed that it's time for the British people to have their say on whether we leave or stay in the EU. However, some parties don't trust the British people to make the decision.

Only a Conservative government - not a coalition one - can deliver an EU referendum. With a majority in Parliament, David Cameron will negotiate a better deal for Britain and then let the public decide in an in-out referendum no later than 2017.

Labour and the Liberal Democrats combined forces in Parliament to defeat the Conservative referendum legislation and UKIP simply can't deliver a referendum.

£150 SAVING FOR RESIDENTS WITH 4TH COUNCIL TAX FREEZE

Scaynes Hill residents are £150 better off after the Conservative-run District & County Councils agreed to freeze Council Tax for the 4th year.

If Council Tax had risen by a typical amount each year, the average Council Tax bill would now cost each household £150 extra.

At the same time as the Council Tax freeze, frontline public services and support for community groups have been protected. Conservatives know that Council Tax is a large monthly bill for many residents and want to see it kept down.

Councillor Christine Field says: "At a time when many bills are going up, residents have welcomed the fact their District & County Council Tax bill has been frozen at 2010 levels, keeping money in people's pockets".

TAX CUT FOR 1,000 LOCAL BUSINESSES

Businesses in Mid Sussex will benefit from two tax cuts which were introduced by the Conservatives in April.

The Conservative Council is cutting the business rates of over 1,000 small retail businesses in the district by £1,000 a year for two years, thanks to government funding.

Employers will also get £2,000 a year off employer's National Insurance contributions to boost job creation.

NICHOLAS WELCOMES PLANNING CHANGES

Mid Sussex MP Nicholas Soames has welcomed changes to national planning guidance published by the government recently. The guidance encourages brownfield development and confirms the 'duty to cooperate', under which Councils have to consult each other on local plans, is not a duty to agree.

Mid Sussex's District Plan was recently delayed by a Planning Inspector after objections from Brighton & Hove City Council. Councillors are working flat out to get the plan back on track as quickly as possible.

Nicholas says: "This is a step in the right direction. I continue to wholeheartedly support the District Council as they deal with these tricky issues".

HUGE BOOST FOR LOCAL LEISURE FACILITIES

- > New Mid Sussex leisure contract a great deal for residents
- > Extensions to gyms and more gym equipment
- > Free swimming for children under 8 years old
- > £1.7 million of new investment from July

Users of the Dolphin leisure centre and Clair Hall will see significant improvements to services from July after Conservative Councillors awarded a new 15 year management contract to industry leaders DC Leisure.

Changes will include extensions to the gym and new, modern equipment. Improved café areas will be created and to encourage young people to get involved in sport, swimming will be free for children under 8 years old.

As part of the highly competitive bidding process, Conservative Councillors have demanded a greater focus on cleaning under the new contract and controls will remain on the prices of the most important services. The contract is a good deal for taxpayers too, with an end to direct Council subsidy of leisure centre running costs and £1.7 million of private sector investment being secured.

Councillor Chris Hersey says: "This is an excellent result for Mid Sussex residents as we have been able to negotiate enlarged gyms, improved facilities and free swimming for under 8s, all at no cost to the taxpayer. Leisure centre users will begin to benefit from the changes in the summer".

Voted 'Leisure Centre Operator of the Year' in 2013, DC Leisure is a not-for-profit organisation which manages almost 100 leisure centres across the country on behalf of 29 local Councils.

SCAYNES HILL NEWS

Neighbourhood Plan

The Neighbourhood Plan remains important to the District Plan and will help ensure appropriate, rather than large scale, development. Cllr Simon McMenemy says: "The aim is to plan the housing needed for future generations without losing the character of our community or over-loading infrastructure such as schools, roads and health services, which many consider full".

Small business

To have a thriving community, we need thriving businesses. The County & District Councils are investing in business starter units in Haywards Heath to provide suitable accommodation for small businesses.

Grants for local projects

West Sussex County Council provides grants to help local groups and events. Amounts from a few pounds to £2500 are available at local meetings. Cllr Christine Field says: "Local projects such as Scaynes Hill Millennium Hall and Lindfield Arts Festival have benefited in the past. If you have a project which could benefit from support, please get in touch and I'll be pleased to explain more".
